

Japs Are Bewildered by God-Emperor's Call On MacArthur

SOME "NOW THEY CAN BE REVEALED" photographs show how the Japs, some of whom now think that their Emperor's call on Gen. MacArthur will make friends of their former enemies although he "lowered himself" by the visit, used live target before they were convinced they were not God's chosen people. Docile and outwardly humble after their defeat, the photos are evidence of their uncivilized brutality when they were unrestrained by occupation forces.

The targets are Sikhs, those stalwart fighting men of India, so hated and feared by the Japs. The photo at left shows the Sikh targets seated blindfolded. A bull's head means a dead prisoner. The living don't live to attest poor marksmanship, for a bayonet thrust, photo at right, silences them. Official British photos. (International).

Student Thinks He Lowered Himself But Wife Says It Was Good Thing for Friendly Relations

By MORRIE LANDSBERG
TOKYO, Sept. 27.—(P)—"Our Emperor lowered himself today" by going to call on General MacArthur at the latter's residence, but "their meeting will deepen the understanding between occupation forces and the Japanese," a university student told me today.
Sitting in Hibiya Park with his wife, the young pharmacist had thought about the question for several minutes before he replied. Urged by an interpreter to "say anything you want to; do not be afraid," he declared:

"It is not very good that the Emperor should visit General MacArthur. General MacArthur should go to visit the Emperor in the palace. But in Japan's present situation it cannot be helped."
His wife smiled as she said, "this is a good thing; it will help the United States and Japan become friends."
A demobilized sailor twisted his handkerchief in his hands and said: "Japanese have been taught since childhood that the Emperor is the sole supreme being for them. They are not taught to be afraid," he declared.

JAP EMPEROR BOWS BEFORE CONQUERORS

Clare Yeazel of the Good Hope Road has a White Rock hen that likes variety.

Usually, the hen lays normal eggs, no different from any other eggs. But, not long ago, the hen laid an egg that looked like a cross between a pretzel and a Boy Scout knot. The shell was brown and rough and twisted. Apparently there was no yolk, for when the egg was broken there was nothing but a clear substance like the white of an egg inside it.
After laying the freak egg, Yeazel's hen has settled down to the old routine and has produced nothing but traditionally-shaped eggs since.

It seems to me that the idea of another box office besides the one at Gardner Park where tickets could be bought for the football games here, is an excellent one. I think those who waited in line for almost an hour at last Friday night's game when the Blue Lions played Chillicothe, will agree with me. A friend made the suggestion that tickets also be sold at some uptown office in order to speed along the large crowds that ordinarily have to stand in line to get a ticket whenever a game is scheduled here. If this would not work, perhaps another office at the field would solve the problem.

YANKS ARE SPOILED BY EUROPEAN WOMEN

Army Nurse Sails Into American Soldiers

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(P)—An anonymous U. S. nurse declared in the letter column of Stars and Stripes today American men had been spoiled by their successes "with the females of Europe," and were due for an awakening when they returned home.
"In view of these successes, where chewing gum has supplanted conversation, where chocolate bars have superseded a buildup, and where results are strictly on a material basis," she wrote, "the Americans are losing the art of wooing. The love market in the United States will certainly not operate on the candy-and-commodity basis."
At an officers' party, she continued, by 10 P. M. "every officer has made a pass at me, which, though normally flattering, is so lacking in subtlety, originality and deception as to be utterly repulsive."
Enlisted men, she added, were the same.
"No wonder," she concluded. "We prefer French or British army personnel whose gallantry, subtlety, suavity and glib phrases . . . practically make the results a foregone conclusion."

DEBATE FLARES ON DEPRESSION PREVENTIVES

Congress Also Faced With Task of Settling at Least Five Other Major Issues

By MAX HALL
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—The Senate plunged on today in its bitter debate over future depressions and what the government can do to stop them.
It is one of the loudest Senate quarrels in years.
In Congress, also:
1. Two important congressmen came out against merging the war and navy departments. They are Rep. Andrew May (D., Ky.), chairman of the House Military committee, and Rep. Carl Vinson (D., Ga.), chairman of the House Naval committee.
Reports spread on Capitol Hill that President Truman is about to propose a merger.
2. Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D., Colo.), frequent critic of the army, made a surprising prediction that the army and navy soon will get "more volunteers than they can use." (They can use a lot.)
3. Earl Browder appeared again today before the House committee on un-American activities.
4. A Senate committee tried to speed up its stormy hearings on raising the minimum wage from 40 to 65 cents an hour.
5. President Truman called in Democrat members of the House Ways and Means committee. The topic: Unemployment pay.
This committee pigeon-holed the Senate-approved bill for more help to jobless people. Mr. Truman wants it revived.
Row Over Jobs Rages
Senatorial embers are flaming in the debate over the "full employment bill." There were at least four noisy personal clashes yesterday.
President Truman supports the bill, which would make it a federal responsibility to assure jobs for all—if private enterprise can't do it. Fiercest defenders of the bill yesterday were two New England Republicans, Senators Tobey of New Hampshire and Aiken of Vermont, who argued hotly against Senator Taft (R., Ohio), Radcliffe (D., Md.), Millikin (R., Colo.), and Ball (R., Minn.).
The big noise is over a section of the bill which says that whenever full employment cannot be otherwise assured, the federal government shall make whatever "expenditure and investment" needed to assure it.
Taft and Radcliffe offered an amendment to change this. They don't want it to sound as though the government is "guaranteeing" jobs. They want the bill to say in effect that such expenditures shall not be unlimited, but shall be made with due consideration for other obligations of the government.

Yesterday the Senate passed a bill making military service more attractive, with more liberal (Please Turn to Page Ten)

Three Doolittle Fliers Were Executed By Japs

By RICHARD CUSHING
SHANGHAI, Sept. 27.—(P)—Three small plain wooden boxes containing the cremated remains of three Doolittle fliers executed by the Japanese were recovered from a shelf in a Shanghai funeral parlor today as eye witnesses told how the men were shot through the head October 15, 1942, while they knelt bound to crosses.
The ashes of the airmen, who were executed on direct orders from Tokyo, were pointed out to Capt. J. S. Bailey of San Francisco, War Crimes Commission investigator, by Japanese attaches of the Kiangwan military prison near here, where the victims were held before their cold-blooded shooting in an old Chinese cemetery.

One Killed, 50 Hurt In Streetcar Crash

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—(P)—One man was killed and 50 or more persons were injured, some seriously, in the flaming crash of a street car with an automobile and second street car on one of the city's steepest travelways today.
Safety Patrolman Robert Shearwood identified the dead man—whose body was incinerated—as Maurice Rosenthal.
All three vehicles were destroyed by fire. Windows in nearby homes were shattered by an explosion of the automobile's gasoline tank at the moment of impact.
General Hospital reported it treated at least 25 persons while as many more were cared for at the scene by the City Life Squad and physicians.
Both street cars were loaded with office-bound workers.
Passengers broke windows of the cars to flee the stifling fumes and flame.
Police Chief Eugene T. Weatherly said the first car's operator, Annon Dezon, had just received his final check as a motorman yesterday.

CORN FROST DAMAGE EXPECTED SATURDAY

Little Danger in Ohio; Mercury To Drop

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(P)—The first threat of frost damage to the 1945 corn crop came today when the U. S. Weather Bureau issued a frost warning for Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and northern Illinois, with killing frosts expected in the first three states by Saturday morning.
Forecasters said an extensive cold air mass moving southeastward from Canada would strike the plains states and north central states by this week end. Indiana is expected to have scattered light frosts in the northwest portion Saturday morning and in the north and central portions Sunday morning.
LITTLE DANGER IN OHIO
COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—(P)—The U. S. Weather Bureau station here today reported there was little danger of frost in Ohio this week end, though cooler temperatures can be expected in the wake of the Minnesota-Wisconsin-Illinois frost warning.

Soldier in Hospital for Mental Upset Hangs Self for Murder He Did Not Commit

By HAL BOYLE
ABOARD NAVY TRANSPORT, Western Pacific.—(P)—Sailors like to spin yarns and trade experiences in the long hours aboard ship between dusk and bunktime. So do correspondents.
When you get them together they really fan the breeze. It was at one of these sessions that a naval officer told the story of the soldier who died for a crime he never committed.
"It happened on one of those Pacific islands we took as hopping stones months ago," began the naval officer. "We had had the place cleaned up for some days and there were no more Japs around. No live ones at least. The army had set up a field hospital near the shore.
"In the hospital was a young nurse who had fallen in love with a young army officer. She managed to slip out for a few hours one night and they were walking along the beach—probably talking over their plans after the war.
"It wasn't a bad place to be. You know those islands are hotter than hell in daytime, but on good nights you get a breeze

MEAT RATIONING ABOLISHED FOR CHEAPER GRADES

Increasing Supply Given As Reason for Easing Wartime Restrictions

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—One-third of the increasing meat supply will be ration-free beginning Monday.
The OPA announced today that from Sunday through October 27 no points would be required for lower grades of beef, veal and lamb.
Also ration-free will be hamburger, lamb and veal patties and all cheaper cuts of all grades of meat, including such cuts as short ribs and brisket of beef, breast and flank of lamb and shank of veal.
Points are being eliminated, too, on all canned meats, sausage, frankfurters, luncheon varieties and all other products made from lower grades of meat. These grades are utility, canner and cutter beef, and utility and cull veal and lamb.
Better Grades Same
This will leave on the ration list at current point values all pork cuts, bacon and other cured meats.

OHIO REPUBLICANS TO BE TALKED OVER

House Members To Meet in Washington

By EARL BERKLEY
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Ohio politics from the Republican viewpoint will be considered at a meeting of the state's house members next week.
The purpose is to give everyone a chance to blow off steam, forecast the outlook in his district and perhaps look over the field of prospective candidates for the senate.
Rep. Hess (R-Ohio) told a reporter he is calling the meeting as Ohio's member of the Republican congressional campaign committee. All 17 of the Buckeye Republicans in the house will be invited.
Hess said next week's meeting would not undertake to make any decisions or to endorse anyone for senator or governor.
But more, I suspect the whole school of Wallace thought of peace by appeasement is breaking up. More officials here think we ought to get something in return for giving. They want to make appeasement sound, by making it two-sided. They would like to see us win some points somewhere before doling out the money as well as the bomb.

Country's Over-all Labor Picture Worst in Months—Virtually All Sections Affected—Business in New York Paralyzed And—Auto Industry, Mining and Oil Production Among Major Sufferers

By The Associated Press
Tension mounted over the nation's spreading labor strife today as the Army of idle workers over labor disputes skyrocketed to near the two million mark.
The over-all labor picture was the worst in months.
A quick survey along the troubled labor front showed more than 1,850,000 workers off their jobs, some 370,000 idle by strikes, the others hit indirectly by the stoppages.
An apparent deadlock appeared in the Chicago conference of oil industry and CIO Union leaders with Federal conciliators amidst threats of a nation-wide strike of oil workers which would add 250,000 more to the strike lines. Some 35,000 workers are on strike in seven states, demanding a 30 per cent wage increase.
New York Has Troubles
For the fourth day New York city struggled in the grip of a single strike which paralyzed business activity at an estimated loss of millions of dollars in trade and wages, and inconvenienced hundreds of thousands. The strike by about 15,000 AFL elevator operators and building service employees threatened to spread.
In the Pacific Northwest where more than 60,000 AFL lumber workers are striking, a CIO union continued policy meetings but did not issue a strike call to its 40,000 workers.
Additional coal miners left their jobs in West Virginia and Pennsylvania bringing the total miners idle in the two states to more than 35,000. The strike-idle in Pennsylvania mounted to around 75,000, including 33,500 at four Westinghouse Electric Company plants. Fifty-eight bituminous pits were closed.
Auto Factories Closed
In Detroit, where some 90,000 are idle, CIO-United Automobile Workers' representatives and Chrysler Corporation spokesmen made no comment as they recessed their conference on the union's demand for a 30 percent wage increase for the company's 80,000 workers.

Theory of Giving Everything To Russia and Britain To Soothe Them Is Silenced

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The local sect of officials who have been developing a theory that peace can be obtained only by giving things to Russia and Britain and making them happy, is now in meditative silence, momentarily at least.
Mr. Truman quieted the cabinet dispute about giving the atomic bomb to Russia by personally assuming responsibility for a future decision. He also carefully fended off the ton of brickbats already in full flight toward the skull of Commerce Secretary Wallace by saying Mr. Wallace had not "insisted" upon the gift, but he did not say Wallace had not advocated such a course.
My wellheeled informants say this means Russia does not get the bomb, at least not now, and not ever for sheer appeasement purposes. Why should she? What justifies such a gift? To what use does she propose to put the bomb, certainly not to bring the four freedoms to the Balkans, Poland and Finland or anywhere. Indeed, not to promote any Truman international policies or purpose expressed at the London Council of ministers. All our ideas were firmly turned down by Molotov according to reports the same day at the cabinet meeting. What good use could she thus possibly make of the bomb?
But more, I suspect the whole school of Wallace thought of peace by appeasement is breaking up. More officials here think we ought to get something in return for giving. They want to make appeasement sound, by making it two-sided. They would like to see us win some points somewhere before doling out the money as well as the bomb.

PUBLISHERS NAMED FOR SENATE SPOT

COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—(P)—The names of two Ohio publishers have been added to the increasing list of persons mentioned for the U. S. Senate, but Louis Bromfield, author-farmer, has joined the ranks of those who do not want to succeed Sen. Harold H. Burton.
Gov. Frank J. Lausche reported the names of William F. Maag of the Youngstown Vindicator and John S. Knight of the Akron Beacon Journal had been submitted to him as possible appointees.
Bromfield at his Mansfield farm declared, "I couldn't possibly take on any extra duties, even if I were offered to me, which I haven't been."

MacArthur Informal While Precedents Collapse at Humiliating Meeting

By MURLIN SPENCER
TOKYO, Sept. 27.—(P)—Emperor Hirohito called on General MacArthur today, removed his top hat and bowed to the Supreme Allied Commander.
What they discussed in a 35-minute talk was not disclosed but the important thing, said one high officer, was the Emperor did the calling. Nothing like that has happened before in Japan's history.
It was assumed they discussed mutual problems connected with American occupation of what remains of Hirohito's once great empire.
Abdication a Question
Among possible subjects was that of abdication, still rumored possible. However, Marquis Koichi Kido, keeper of the privy seal, who is the Emperor's principal adviser in these matters, told The Associated Press there was no prospect "at present" of abdication because Hirohito personally must carry out the Potsdam terms.
The BBC quoted its Tokyo correspondent, Douglas Willis, as saying today it was "strongly believed" Emperor Hirohito expressed his will to abdicate during the meeting with Gen. MacArthur, and that "the redrafting of the Japanese constitution is already taking place."
Hirohito and his Japanese interpreter were closeted in the state reception room in the residence of the embassy which MacArthur and his family have taken over.
Arrives in Old Car
The Emperor's somewhat old automobile drove up to the main entrance carrying the Imperial Emblem on the front. The back curtain was drawn. Hirohito was sitting bolt upright. His grand chamberlain, Admiral Fujita, who previously met MacArthur to arrange the meeting, was sitting facing the Emperor.
An attendant jumped out of the car, opened the door and bowed. The chamberlain backed out of the car, keeping his face to the emperor, and bowed as Hirohito got out.
The Emperor found Brig. Gen. Bonner Fellers, MacArthur's aide, and Maj. Saubon Bower, an interpreter, awaiting them. Hirohito, in formal diplomatic clothes, took off his silk hat, bowed, and shook hands with Fellers, probably an unprecedented thing.
Still more unprecedented, however, the Emperor again extended his hand as Fellers introduced him to Bower.
Fellers ushered the Emperor ahead of him to the state reception room where, as he entered, Hirohito bowed in MacArthur's direction.

GASOLINE HERE SUFFICIENT FOR PRESENT NEEDS

Washington C. H. Situation Better Than in Many Cities While Strike in Effect

Gasoline supplies ranging from three to 80 days were in the bulk plants of oil companies in Washington C. H. as the gasoline picture for Ohio was clouded with reports of stored fuel nearing the bottom of the barrel.

As a whole, dealers here felt the Chicago conference would bring a settlement of the labor disputes before the bulk plant supplies are exhausted. At any rate, Fayette Countians are not feeling the pinch at all when compared with Toledo and other cities where a voluntary rationing system has been put into effect.

Either by railroad tank cars or by motor transport, bulk plants here still are getting their gasoline, despite the fact that only two refineries in Ohio still were running Thursday as the strike threatened to spread throughout the nation.

L. F. Everhart of the Marathon Oil Company said he was keeping bulk plants and station tanks loaded as full as storage facilities permitted. At present there is a two week's supply, he said, and gasoline still is coming in.

Only one dealer mentioned above-normal sales because of motorists who are keeping their tanks as full as possible as insurance against a possible complete shutdown. "We have a three or four day supply under normal sales but sales are not normal," he said. The same man indicated he thought the Chicago conference would bring a settlement before long. "It's too serious a problem for them not to," he declared.

J. W. Briggs of the Shell Company, while admitting he had a pretty fair stock now, said frankly, "Things don't look so good" for the settlement of the strike. Glen Bidwell of Standard Oil said he expected a nationwide shutdown.

Elden Evans, manager of the Independent Community Oil Company, said he had a 15-day supply and was continuing to get shipments from Cincinnati and Ashland. Glen Hamilton of the Pure Oil Company said he expected the government to take over the strike-bound areas rather than allow supplies to be shut off.

As things stand now, Washington C. H. motorists need have no fears about being able to buy gasoline—they can.

STEALS TIRE; FACES CHARGE

Man Arrested in Greenfield And Is Held There

Jack Mercer, 26, Greenfield, is under arrest in that place following theft of a tire, tube and auto wheel from a Ford sedan owned by Samuel Smaltz, 630 Gregg St., but is facing charges there where it was found he had sold some stolen oil.

Soon after the theft here and Mercer being suspected, Police Chief Vaiden Long asked the police at Greenfield to arrest Mercer and hold him.

This was done, and the tire, tube and wheel recovered, but when it was found Mercer was wanted in Greenfield for theft, he was held there.

In the meantime a warrant has been issued here for Mercer, and he may be returned here for prosecution after the Greenfield authorities get through with him.

FARM LABORER ADMITS THEFT OF $85 WATCH

Charles Hinson Appears at Police Headquarters And Is Held

Charles Hinson, 21, said to be from North Carolina but who had been working on a farm near here recently, Thursday was held to the grand jury on $500 bond when he faced Judge R. H. Sites in the city police court on a grand larceny charge filed by Gordon Underwood, who has a garage at 219 East Market Street.

Hinson was charged with stealing an $85 watch from Underwood's desk at his office Wednesday afternoon. When Hinson was searched, the missing watch was found tucked in a watch pocket under his belt. Then he admitted stealing it, Chief Vaiden Long said.

Underwood had appeared at police headquarters Wednesday evening after missing the watch, and gave a good description of Hinson, who had been in his office, and who was the only one Underwood thought might have taken his property.

Hinson, learning that the police were looking for him, boldly walked into police headquarters and asked what was wanted.

He was identified by Underwood as the man who had been in his place, and denied all knowledge of the theft.

Not satisfied with his denial, Chief Vaiden Long searched Hinson very carefully, and found the watch, which Underwood identified as the stolen property. Hinson then admitted taking the time piece, and was locked up until Thursday, when he faced formal charges of grand larceny filed before Judge Sites, pleaded guilty, and was held for grand jury action.

THANKS, YANKS TO BE THEME OF BAND'S SHOW

Service Songs To Be Featured at Half at Football Game

"Thanks to the Yanks" will be the theme of the marching band's show at the Wilmington-Blue Lions football game Friday night.

After the customary spotlighted flag raising before the game begins, the band will march down the field in an airplane formation playing the Army Air Corps song, William B. Clift, the director, said. The seven drum majorettes will make the propellers of the plane with their whirling batons.

At the half, the star formation will be a big V paired alternately with an E and a J while the band plays service songs—"Caisson Songs," "Marine March" and "Anchors Aweigh." The E and J will be changing while the band plays the three songs.

The Wilmingtonians, the band will make a double-line W and play "Down the Field," the school's song. That formation is slated before the V spectacle. The last half-time formation will be a WH before the home fans for Washington High while the band plays the alma mater.

Police again were called to the "Rocking Chair Inn" on Wilson Street, about midnight, Wednesday night, to quell a disturbance, and they brought back Lawrence

Chandler, this city, on a disorderly conduct charge, and were seeking another man or two Thursday.

It seems that a gun was fired outside the place, and beer bottles used freely as war clubs, according to the police. Chandler had been struck in the back with a bottle, and one bottle was hurled through a window.

Police were unable to ascertain just how many were involved in the affray, which seems to have occurred chiefly outside the place.

H. H. DENTON PICK UP TRUCK IS RECOVERED

A pick-up truck stolen from H. H. Denton, implement dealer, the night of Sept. 14, was located in Greenfield, Wednesday, where it had been abandoned.

The truck had been standing at the curb for days. It was said to be in good condition.

PENNINGTON BAKERY HAS BIG EXPANSION PROGRAM

WORLD TODAY

—By DEWITT MACKENZIE—

Emperor Hirohito's descent from his throne to present himself before Supreme Commander MacArthur—in effect an act of submission by a defeated head of state to his conqueror—ranks among the major events which are ushering in the new world era.

This unprecedented development may well serve to break the spell of imperial mysticism and omnipotence under which the Japanese have been ruled for 2,600 years by Mikados to whom they have attributed divinity. It may herald the advent of rule by the people.

Imagine what the disclosure of this meeting will mean to the millions who never have dared even to raise their eyes to gaze directly upon their emperor. We see him arrive in his automobile at the American Embassy, immaculate in morning suit and silk hat. His dignified grand chamberlain backs out of the car, head lowered and face towards the emperor, and bows the great personage out to the sidewalk.

And then we see the mikado, silk hat in hand, brought before MacArthur. The general is studiously garbed in ordinary field khaki. He even wears his shirt open at the throat, without a tie. And not one of his many medals is on him.

It's easy to believe that this may do much to shock medieval Japan out of its trance. Certainly it may be expected to spur the current talk of possible abdication by the mikado, or at least his abandonment of temporal power to make way for the inauguration of a popular form of government. This needn't disturb his position as spiritual head—if the people want him.

Along with this dramatic turn, we get other indications of Allied progress in consolidating our victory over Germany and Japan. The simultaneous actions of Generals MacArthur and Eisenhower in tightening up their occupation controls provide significant answers to recent sharp criticism at home and abroad that the aggressor nations are being given too soft a peace.

The developments in both cases are aimed at speeding up attainment of the chief Allied war aims. These were to render the enemy utterly impotent militarily, and at the same time to destroy the militaristic mentality which, in the case of Germany, encompassed Hitlerism. The physical defeat has been achieved, but the more difficult moral reform cannot be carried out until the two peoples have been made to understand that their countries have been smashed.

It isn't stated whether the moves in Japan and Germany are due to Allied public opinion or are normal developments of the occupation program. In any event it is safe to assume that they represent the desire of the general public that we crack down on the Axis hard enough to achieve lasting peace. And in passing it may be remarked that the very natural desire of the folks at home to get our soldier boys back doesn't contemplate the impairment of the government's ability to carry out the occupation essentials.

Eisenhower has acted quickly to eliminate Nazi influence in Bavaria where Nazis are said to be still holding public offices. At the same time he summoned General George S. Patton from Bavaria to make a report on this matter which is so vital to Eisenhower's policy of complete denazification of Germany's political, educational and economic life, as ruthlessly as required. The Allied control council also has moved to complete the destruction of Nazism and militarism by sweeping edicts which include the outlawing of the Nazi party. And in Japan, MacArthur has

CAPACITY WILL BE INCREASED IN SHORT TIME

Additional Buildings and Equipment Being Added By Local Concern

The Pennington Bros. Bakery on Clinton Avenue is in the midst of a huge expansion program of building and adding much new equipment to greatly increase the capacity of the big plant and insure baked goods reaching the customer at the earliest possible minute. During the days of war it was found impossible to produce all of the baked goods (bread, rolls and buns) to meet the demand, and it was necessary to turn part of the business over to the company's Cincinnati plant.

A big expansion program was worked out and efforts made to obtain priority for nearly doubling the size of the building and adding much additional equipment to greatly increase the capacity of the plant.

However it was not until recently that real progress was made in the expansion program, and a new building, or addition to the main plant, has been built on the east side, another on the rear of the building, and still another addition will be added to the rear part of the main structure which is about 220 by 85 feet.

The new machinery ordered was slow in arriving, but it is now coming in and is being installed as rapidly as possible, so that when the expansion program is completed the plant will be able to produce more and better products with little increase in the present payroll of approximately 100 people.

Howard Wright, who has been the energetic manager of the plant here since Nov., 1944, is keeping an eye on the building and installation work as well as the regular bakery business.

made a reorganization which has a similar objective. He has pulled the last props out from under the old Jap governmental influence and thus has placed himself in closer contact with the Japanese public.

Main Plant of the Pennington Bros. Bakery on Clinton Avenue.

Recently an addition has been built on the east side of the main building, and it is 100 feet long by 31 feet in width, with buff-tile walls and steel roof trusses.

This building is to be extended the full length of the structure with as little delay as possible, and it will be used for loading and storage space, with the loading space in the front part of the structure, and connected with the large finished product department, by large doors. Trucks may drive entirely through this new addition.

Also built back of the main plant, and now being completed, is a combination refrigeration plant and rack-cleaning room. The refrigeration will be for the entire plant. The cleaning room will be equipped for boiling and otherwise clean racks and other baking equipment, so that it will be in perfect sanitary condition at all times.

In addition to the newly built part, another sizeable room to be used for repair service will be constructed, and later garage space and vehicle repair service will be provided on the rear of the big lot.

For sometime the company has been renting storage space and garage space for stock and its fleet of 25 delivery trucks, as well as its three big semi-trailer trucks that supply distribution branches in Columbus, Dayton and Lancaster.

Because of the inadequacy of the present plant it has been necessary to operate the plant around the clock, as it has also been necessary to use the regular bread baking department for buns and rolls after the bread baking has been completed.

Under the new set-up the plant will have a complete bun and roll producing plant, or a bakery within a bakery, so that these products can reach the consumer hours ahead of the present schedule.

The capacity of the plant will be greatly enlarged when the final equipment is added, which includes a new bun and roll making machine and a new mixer. A new slicer has also just been placed in operation.

Incidentally the plant will change from fast to central standard time Saturday.

A large addition has been started on the fermentation room, a necessary adjunct in the increased capacity of the plant.

It will require sometime to complete the building and machinery installation project now under way, but already some of the congestion has been relieved and the capacity of the plant is mounting gradually and will be greatly increased within a comparatively short time.

The big baking company was established here in 1938 and produces "Honey" bread, buns and rolls for a great area in this part of Ohio.

It has long since become one of the city's most progressive and solid industries.

ROMANCE AND CRIME AND SHELL-SHOCK IN PACIFIC WAR STORY

from the sea. And I guess even hell would look nice if you were walking through it by moonlight with your best girl.

"They came to a secluded stretch of sand away from any camp and they sat down together on the beach and looked out at the sea."

The couple thought they were alone. But envious eyes watched them from a clump of darkness behind them. Then hands reached out and struck from the darkness and the army officer was dead and still.

"You can imagine what happened to the girl," the naval officer continued. "Then she was killed, too. And both bodies were buried in the sand. But their graves had been scooped hurriedly and were too shallow. In the morning the tide had washed away the sand and left the army officer's hand sticking out. Someone saw it. Both bodies were soon recovered."

"The murders created a sensation all over the island. Double killings like that aren't exactly an everyday feature of army life. For days nobody talked much of anything else.

"But the big question remained unsolved. Who had done it?" Finally a shell-shocked soldier in one of the hospital wards told one of the nurses he had done it. She called a doctor and the soldier repeated his story. He said he had escaped from the hospital at night, crept up on the young couple by the shore and killed both. He said he wanted to confess the crimes and clear his conscience.

"I did it," he cried in remorse over and over again. "I killed them. I'll have to pay in some way for killing them."

The nurses and doctors didn't believe his story. They checked in every way and found it impossible. They decided he had overheard other nurses talking about the case and that the idea of personal guilt had been implanted in his already troubled irrational mind. Their refusal to believe him angry.

"I did it," he kept repeating. "I will have to pay in some way." And pay he did.

"One morning they found him strangled," said the naval officer. "During the night he had taken his web belt and hanged himself—hanged himself to pay for a crime of which everyone was certain he was innocent."

The transport rocked slowly from side to side. Two correspondents playing gin rummy at the next table waited for the naval officer to finish his story.

"Not long afterward they caught the real murderers of the nurse and the officer," he said. "They were soldiers from a camp nearby. But their confessions came too late to help the shell-shocked boy. If they had been caught sooner probably the doctors could have talked him out of his delusion."

One correspondent still looked expectantly at the naval officer. "What happened to the guilty soldiers?" he asked.

The naval officer looked at him as if he had asked what caused thunder or made the moon rise. "What do you think," he said, "happens to a soldier who would kill a frontline nurse in wartime?"

Successful Victory Party at Country Club Wednesday Is Attended by Over 100

"Welcome to the Victory Party" was emblazoned in red, white and blue colors on a banner sign over the door at the foyer of the Washington Country Club, Wednesday evening, when the long-anticipated "victory party" was attended by over one hundred members of the club and their families. Receiving the guests near the door of the beautifully decorated lounge was the committee which included Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Whitfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Simons, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kelley, Mrs. Hazel DeWitt and Mrs. A. S. Stemler.

The guests were invited to find their places at three long tables and several smaller tables for the serving of a most delicious two-course meal of appropriate and seasonal viands. Centering each table were miniature American flags while red, white and blue candles shed their soft and flickering light over the assemblage during the pleasant dinner hour, one of prolonged enjoyment. Each guest's cover was marked with a blue and white tally which inscribed with an appropriate patriotic verse.

Gorgeous and varied bouquets of fall flowers in all shades and hues were placed at points of vantage throughout the lounge which was the scene of one of the fall social season's best entertained events.

During the course of the remainder of the evening many guests played bridge while some enjoyed hearts. Bridge prize winners were Mrs. Robert Edge and Mr. Frank Hutson while the hearts awards went to Mrs. Charles Wallace and to Mr. W. S. Paxson. Walter McCoy was awarded another prize.

The dinner committee was the recipients of the guests' enthusiastic appreciation for planning the successful affair.

Legion Auxiliary Places Support To Hospital Plan

The American Legion Auxiliary last night put their stamp of approval and support of the proposed hospital for Fayette County after hearing an address at their regular meeting time on Wednesday evening, the speaker being Walter F. Rettig, a member of the hospital committee.

Last night's meeting was opened by the report by the auditing committee, of which Mrs. Marie Williams is chairman. Her report was read and accepted. Mrs. Emerson Chapman, president, announced the Jeffersonville and New Holland Auxiliary units have accepted their invitation to take part in triple installation ceremonies to be held at the home here, on October tenth. Mrs. Ray Elwell, seventh district president, of Portsmouth, will be the installing officer.

Mrs. Marguerite Powell was appointed chairman in charge of serving the post's installation dinner on October 11.

It was also decided at the meeting to purchase four flags, two for Madison Mills and two for Sunnyside school. Mrs. Marie Williams and Mrs. Howard Fogle are in charge of purchasing these flags.

Mrs. Emily Coberly, program chairman, then introduced Mr. Rettig. The Auxiliary voted to back the hospital plans after a round table discussion.

Beta Circle (CCL) Elected Officers Wednesday Night

The handsomely appointed home of Mrs. Gilbert Crouse was the scene of the organization meeting of the new sister club of Alpha Circle (C.C.L.) on Wednesday evening, the eighteen members now enrolled meeting to form plans for activities and plans of study, as well as to elect their new officers.

The officers present for the session included vice-president, Mrs. Howard Foster; secretary, Mrs. A. E. Weatherly; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ora Middleton; treasurer, Mrs. Fulton Alkire; press reporter, Mrs. Darrell Thornton.

Mrs. Newbrey opened the meeting by reading an outline of the C.C.L. purposes, aims and meaning. Members answered roll call by giving information concerning their home and family.

A fitting poem entitled "The Architect," was read by Mrs. Howard Foster.

Before they elected new officers, the name of Beta Circle of C.C.L. was chosen by the new club.

New officers include: president, Mrs. Michael Helfrich; vice-president, Mrs. E. K. McCoy; secretary, Mrs. Robert Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Gilbert Crouse; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gene Hard; press reporter, Mrs. Billie Wilson.

Mrs. E. K. McCoy will be hostess for the next meeting, to be held on October tenth, her assisting hostess to be Mrs. Earl Fisher. Mrs. Paul Mohr will give the study paper.

Mrs. Newbrey then extended an invitation to Beta Chapter members to attend the October 26 hobby show, to be held at the Dayton Power and Light club rooms. A musical and guest speaker program is also planned, the affair to begin at 6:30 P. M.

During the October 10 meeting the new officers will be installed by Alpha Circle members. They will also decide upon regular meeting dates.

Mrs. Crouse was assisted during the course of the evening by Mrs. Helfrich.

As the club enrollment is still open for a limited number of members, any mother interested in joining this club should contact one of the new officers of either Beta or Alpha Circle.

HELICOPTER LINE IS PLANNED FOR WASHINGTON C. H.

Application for New Route For Passengers, Mail and Express Has Been Filed

Residents of this community may soon be flying by helicopter to Cincinnati, Zanesville, Pittsburgh and intermediate points, and sending packages and other mail from Washington C. H.

The Red Star Way, Inc., has asked permission of the Civil Aeronautics Board to install a helicopter line planned to furnish service to this and other cities, even though such places do not possess an airport.

Red Star Way, Inc. has filed application for a certificate authorizing the carrying of passengers, express and mail to Washington C. H., Circleville and other points on Route U. S. 22.

The line would render service between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, with regular scheduled stops in Washington C. H., Wilmington, Blanchester, Cambridge, Barnesville, Norwich, St. Clairsville and other points.

Side routes would bring in Newark and Columbus, Steubenville, and other points. Still additional side routes may be added so that this city may become an important cross line.

A letter sent to city officials along the route states "air service proposed is local in character by the use of helicopters which will land in or near the center of the business district of the city. It is believed that helicopter service will avoid the delay necessitated by travel to and from the city airport, which necessarily must be located at considerable distance from the center of the city. It is intended to give immediate air service to your city, regardless of when airport service is established."

"It is not intended to take the place of airplane service at the city airport, but will supplement it whenever it is inaugurated." The "exhibits" book includes company history and plans, which outline the present activities of the Red Star Way Inc., a bus company which operates between Pittsburgh and Columbus and tells what the company wants to do; proposed air routes and initial schedules; community of interest; traffic potential, economic and financial statistics; financial fitness of applicant; operating data; helicopter specifications; organization of proposed air service; capital equipment requirements; estimate of operating expenses and revenues, proposed fares.

Proposed rates are $.068 per mile for passengers; mail $1 per ton mile and express at $.60 per ton mile. With those rates a trip to Circleville would cost $1.84.

The company proposes to use a 7-passenger helicopter Rota-Airbus. It is powered by two Jacobs engines, which are aircooled, direct drive and have 7 cylinders. The helicopter is designed to meet the following estimated performance requirements: high speed, 115 to 120 miles per hour; cruising speed, 100 MPH; range, non-stop, 250 miles; vertical rate of climb, 450 feet per minute; rate of climb with slight forward velocity, 900 feet per minute; service ceiling, 10,000 feet.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

LETTERS SENT WAR VETERANS ON HELP CENTER

Ex-servicemen Urged To Feel Free To Get Information
At Headquarters

In appreciation of "your many sacrifices," the Veterans Information Service set up by various co-operating organizations of Washington C. H. will be open daily from 8 A. M. until 5 P. M. except Saturdays when the hours are to be 8 A. M. until noon, a letter being sent to returning soldiers, sailors and marines by the Chamber of Commerce.

With the Chamber of Commerce taking the role of co-ordinator, the letter says the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Veterans, Red Cross, Selective Service and others have been actively behind the creation and promotion of this veterans service.

The Information Center is in the USES office, 104 East Market Street, and Ward Miller is in direct charge of it. Miller is described in the letter as "a veteran of World War I and a man who can speak and understand your language." He also is the manager of the USES manager here.

The letter, with an opening paragraph that says "Congratulations on a job well done and welcome back to good old Washington C. H. and Fayette County," suggests to the veterans "if you have any problems, whether it concerns employment, back government pay, domestic, legal, disability or insurance, you are welcome to stop in and have a chat with Mr. Miller."

"Please feel free," the letter continues, "to discuss at any time any problem or any idea that you may have with any one of the above mentioned organizations or, better still, first contact Mr. Miller."

It also carries a reminder to "bring your discharge papers as a means of identification."

About 150 of the letters are to be sent out within the next few days by the C of C and others are to be sent to veterans as they are discharged and come back to settle down to civilian life.

A banner "Veterans Information Center," two feet wide and 18 feet long is to be placed over the entrance in the near future, it was said.

VETERANS INCREASING
CHILLICOTHE — Gen. E. F. Glenn Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, installed a class of 110, bringing membership to 1,108. The goal is 2,000.

FAYETTE CANNING CO. CORN IS ALL PACKED

600 Acres of Good Quality
Packed Elsewhere

Wednesday the work of jerking, hauling and packing the last of 600 acres of sweet corn contracted by the Fayette Canning Company, was completed.

The work has been under way for weeks, and the corn has been hauled in large trucks to West Jefferson and some to Plain City, for packing, as the plant here was not operated this season, due to the small acreage and scarcity of labor.

The Fayette plant, however, will pack pumpkins, providing the crop is sufficient to warrant operating the factory.

First reports indicate the pumpkin crop is a small one.

First For DEMOCRACY

In Peace, as in War, a mother's first responsibility is the care and guidance of her children . . . for educated citizens, physically and morally strong, are the primary need for wise self-government in the years to come.

Without modern kitchen equipment, the work of preparing meals for the family taxes the homemaker's strength . . . takes time and energy needed for family recreation and companionship. With the new time-saving, labor-lightening gas ranges now, or soon, available at your dealer's, every mother can put "first things first."

Lion Lineup Revamped For Friday Night Game

Changes in both line and backfield today raised hopes of the WHS Blue Lions and their followers for a victory—the first of the season—here Friday night when they meet the Hurricane from Wilmington.

To get more power in the offense, Danny O'Brien has been shifted to halfback with Tommy Atkins taking over his old post at quarterback. Tommy, however, has a boil on the back of his neck, and Captain Jim Mitchell, one of the fleetest boys in the backfield, is an uncertain starter because of a bad knee. O'Brien, who was knocked out last Friday, has been in the thick of the drills throughout the week and showed no ill effects from the injury.

Chaney probably will start at left tackle with Grimm taking over left end, Coach J. R. Brammer said as he outlined the reshuffled following a stiff scrimmage under the lights Wednesday night.

The new backfield combination was designed, he said, to put O'Brien in a better position to carry the ball and block, because of his greater experience. He is considerably heavier than Atkins, too.

Smarting under two defeats in a row, but somewhat encouraged by their first touchdown and improved defense against the Chillicothe boys last Friday, the Lions are in fine spirits and are looking forward to the Wilmington game with optimism and eagerness. Coach Brammer and his assistant, Stephen Lewis, agreed.

This week's practices have emphasized the fundamentals, especially blocking on the offensive play and tackling for the defense. Both coaches appeared satisfied with the results.

Additional signal drill have developed a more smoothly functioning machine with greater coordination of plays run from the unbalanced line and T formation.

Passes helped set up the first and only touchdown of the season and there were strong possibilities that the WHS boys would

World Series Fate of Cubs Now in Hands of Lowly Reds

By JACK HAND
By the Associated Press
Cincinnati's forlorn Reds, a seventh-place ball club that never was a factor in the National League race, probably will decide the pennant duel between the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cubs have sold their portion of World Series tickets today they had their fingers crossed.

Two games with the Rhinelanders today mean the difference between an early clinching or a last day finish for Charley Grimm's Bruins. Three Saturday and Sunday dates with the pesky Reds hold the key to Billy Southworth's hopes for a fourth straight St. Louis flag.

The penniless Redlegs have been a pushover for the Cubs all season long, dropping 19 out of 20 meetings, to rank as one of the main reasons Chicago has been able to stay out front while losing 16 of 22 to the defending world champs.

If the Bruins can maintain their spell and knock off the Reds twice today, they would need only one victory to be sure of a tie even if St. Louis downs Pittsburgh tonight and sweeps its final three from the Reds.

Grimm has protested yesterday's 11-6 loss to St. Louis on the grounds that one umpire (Babe Pinelli) wasn't looking and another (Butch Henline) said he refused to change his mind despite an official reversal.

By umpire-in-chief Dusty Boggess, changing a double play into a St. Louis base hit.

Detroit polished off its home business for the year by splitting a pair with Cleveland, winning 11-0 behind Hal Newhouser, and losing 3-2 to Steve Gromek, an old Detroit boy.

The results assured the Tigers of a tie for first, even if they lose their final two at St. Louis Saturday and Sunday.

That was the only business in the American League.

National League tilts have nothing to do with the flag race but directly concerned with third place found Brooklyn downing New York, 8-1, and Pittsburgh splitting a pair with Cincinnati. After the Reds had taken the opener, 5-2, behind freshman John Hetski, the Pirates evened matters, 2-1, for Nick Strincevich's 16th victory.

The Dodgers clinched at least a tie for third by their triumph over the Giants, engineered by the four-hit pitching of Ralph Branca, and the Pirates kept alive their dim hopes of catching the Brooks. Other clubs were idle.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The first important threat of frost damage to the late-maturing corn crop today caused buying and short covering which lifted grain futures more than a cent a bushel at times.

December and May wheat hit new seasonal highs, and oats sold at the highest prices in about seven weeks. Rye, after lagging back early, hit new peaks for the season.

Maj. Gen. A. D. Surles, chief of Army public relations, explained the figure included 320,000 men scheduled for discharge, which indicated the eventual force would be about 1,630,000.

Patterson said "we must not shirk the task of enforcing the surrender of Germany and Japan, including the occupation of the hostile areas allotted to us." That, he asserted, could not be done without the "required amount of military strength."

MEAT RATIONING ENDS FOR CHEAPER GRADES AS SUPPLIES INCREASE the choice cuts of beef, veal and lamb of top grades—such as steaks, roasts and chops—and butter, margarine and other fats and oils.

Points on canned fish are being trimmed two to three points a pound.

OFA said it agreed with the Agriculture Department that rationing of pork and the three top grades of beef, veal and lamb (AA, A and B) must be continued.

"Without rationing, most consumers in areas that do not produce these meats, would find it difficult if not impossible to get their fair share," OFA said.

Consumption Goes Up

The Agriculture Department estimated the average annual civilian rate in October would be from 147 to 150 pounds of meat per capita. A few months ago the yearly rate was about 115 pounds. To meet full demand the rate would have to be close to 165 pounds.

OFA Administrator Chester Bowles said the seasonal increase in marketing of range-fed cattle is the principal reason one-third of the meat supply can be made ration-free.

The usual monthly allotment of 50 red points will become valid next Monday. The new stamps, in ration book four, are R1, S1, T1, U1, and V1. Stamps V2, W2, X2, Y2 and Z2 expire Sunday.

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Scattered industrial specialties achieved modest progress in today's stock market while most rails, motors, oils and aircrafts continued to slip.

Persistent apprehension over reconstruction prospects as the result of spreading labor disputes throughout the nation caused the trading of commitments in the majority of cases. Buying timidity also was attributed partly to the feeling that the lengthy sprint to eight-year peaks had put the list in an exceptionally vulnerable position.

A middle-aged man wearing a blue suit and white straw hat came briskly up the walk. He said he was from the Japanese Department of Justice.

Studying his shoddy black shoes, he answered:

"The Emperor visited General MacArthur with the firm determination of converting Japan into a peace-loving country. The fact that he made a personal visit is exceptional, and this is a sorrowful fact to Japan. But in the present situation, we must swallow our tears and watch."

"It was most good," said a man of 70 with a wrinkled, brown face. "Let us hope that the Emperor's visit will secure peace between the two countries."

On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Looking at the National League race by telescope, this department wouldn't be surprised now to see the pennant go to the Cardinals in spite of their tendency to let down after a couple of tough games. That blowup the Cubs staged in the seventh inning yesterday was the biggest of its kind since the recent Florida hurricane and teams don't recover quickly from that sort of thing. It is quite possible that the Pirates now will proceed to belt the daylights out of Chicago and that the Cards will win enough games, with the aid of the undoubted light they got from yesterday's triumph, to barge into their fourth straight World Series.

Files in The Ointment

Bill Nickelson's off-the-wall catch yesterday ought to give the Senators' Clark Griffith a good argument for the rules revision. Since Binga Binks "dropped" fly Sunday, grief has been arguing that the rule which covers that particular fielding play isn't clear enough. Now he'll likely get some support from the other league.

Jacobs Beach Dialogue

Publisher Harry Markson (getting the dope on a new fighter): "Is this boy of yours tall or short?"

Fight Manager: "Oh, he's just mediocre height."

JAP EMPEROR BOWS IN HUMILITY BEFORE AMERICAN CONQUERORS

and began to talk.

There was a quiet dignity about the preliminaries as though MacArthur who for the first time in the history of the Japanese empire was calling upon a representative of a foreign country.

One officer who saw the Emperor close said he appeared to be "an intelligent person."

The Mikado's route along the Embassy Drive was through a cordon of guards—F troop of the Eighth Regiment of the First Cavalry division.

American guards had orders not to allow anyone within two blocks of the scene of the meeting.

The Emperor brought his own interpreter.

Heavy rimmed spectacles bridged the imperial nose and a profile view showed to advantage his receding chin. His visage was cloaked in characteristic Oriental inscrutability.

Too Good For Mortals

For an event which must be arranged carefully, it seemed amazing word hadn't got out to traffic policemen. Most of them stood unconcerned as the imperial entourage passed but occasionally one—perhaps sensing who it was—turned his back as the cars approached and kept his eyes averted until the procession passed.

Sight of the Emperor is said to be too much for the average mortal but correspondents feel much the same as before.

While the General and the Emperor talked, Domei Agency reported four elements of the Sixth Army's 33rd division had arrived in the Kobe area on western Honshu to swell occupation troops there to 4,500.

The War Department has ordered deactivation of the U. S. Tenth army, conqueror of Okinawa, on the recommendation of General MacArthur, Allied Headquarters said today.

The army has remained on duty in the Ryuku Island chain, commanded by Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell.

Stilwell and Brig. Gen. Frank W. Merrill, leader of the famed Merrill's Marauders in the Burma Road campaign and former military attache in Etokyo will return soon to the United States for assignments not yet announced, headquarters officers said.

Bucks Work Out On Missouri Plays

COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Ohio State University's Buckeyes worked out today against Missouri plays brought back by assistant coach Ernie Godfrey, scout at the Tigers-Minnesota game last Saturday.

News of the return of Dick Fisher, star halfback on State's 1939-40-41 teams, was received yesterday. Coach Carroll Widdoes is expected to pair him with Paul Sarringhaus of Hamilton at the wingback spots.

Fisher of Columbiana, has been working out with the Jacksonville, Fla., naval fliers but won't arrive in time for the game with the Tigers Saturday. A navy lieutenant, he also played a year for the Iowa Seahawks.

Coach Widdoes revealed he hoped to add Gene Fekete, 1942 football star to his coaching staff as assistant reserve coach.

THREE DOOLITTLE FLIERS WERE EXECUTED BY JAPS; ASHES ARE IN SHANGHAI

tery.

Names of the Americans had been deliberately falsified, as well as the date of their deaths, but the Japanese produced an official list verifying that the fictitious names of the boxes correspond to those of the executed men. The ages tallied.

No attempt had been made to deliver the ashes to the International Red Cross.

It was learned the ashes of a fourth Doolittle flier, Lt. R. J. Meder, who died of malnutrition, dysentery and meriberi, had been found in Nanking and were being sent here.

Seizure earlier of court martial records which doomed the three Tokyo-bombing fliers had afforded America proof of the infuriated Japanese military had singled out the trio of airmen for discriminatory treatment.

Executed were Lt. Dean Edward Hallmark, 27, of Dallas, Texas, accused of piloting a plane which "bombed and strafed the city (of Tokyo) blindly and discriminately."

Lt. William Glover Farrow, 23, of Darlington, S. C., accused of piloting a plane which "dived and strafed a Nagoya grammar school building and children playing on the grounds."

WATER SUPPLY DISCUSSED BY COMPANY HEAD

Other Business Is Given Attention at Meeting of City Council

Plans for spending $50,000 to insure an adequate water supply for the city and the proposal for a new 10-year contract were discussed with city council, at the regular meeting Wednesday night by G. Taylor Evans, president and general manager of the Ohio Water Service Co.

James M. Riffe, executive vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, also presented the "five year plan" for betterments in the city. Council also took up other matters of business during the rather long session.

Evans said he was present to talk with council about anything the members had on their minds, but declared his primary purpose was to talk about efforts that are to be made to augment the water supply here, for which a $50,000 expenditure had been planned.

Regarding the present rate contract he said consumers had done a wonderful job of paying off the indebtedness, and that 75 percent of it had been liquidated.

Evans told council that the company had amassed a great deal of information which had been in the hands of a firm of engineers the past six months, but so far no plans had been advanced by the engineers to solve the difficult problem of water supply here.

"Water supply is a real problem, but we are going to get the answer to it," he said.

Regarding the cost estimated to obtain an adequate water supply for the city, he said that when the company became wholly an Ohio company last spring, it was calculated at that time that $50,000 would be spent here to increase the supply.

He stated the plant had been faced with two difficult situations—to meet drought conditions and carry the heavy wartime load.

At the conclusion of his talk, Evans said he would answer any questions asked by council.

Councilman Roy Baughn said it seemed the proposed rates do not represent an overall reduction to consumers, and that council wanted to have the indebtedness paid off in the 2-1-2 years remaining in the present contract, rather than spread it over another period of 10 years.

Evans said the new rates proposed represent a substantial reduction, and answering Baughn's assertion that rates should be lower at the end of the present contract, said it is definitely true that at the end of 2-1-2 years when the indebtedness had been liquidated, the rates would be lower.

Evans spoke of the company's net earnings in 1944 being the lowest since 1937.

Riffe asked how long the company had known the water situation here had become dangerously low during droughts. Evans replied "a long time."

"Then why has the water company not done something about it?" asked Riffe. Evans replied that it required time and that the war had interfered with plans to increase the supply "and now it is time for the water company to get busy."

Evans also said there is no available water supply here "without a major operation," and that so far the engineers had made no recommendation that would warrant expenditure of large sums of money. He also stated that while the receipts in 1944 were $82,000 compared with $71,000 in 1943, that operating expenses increased $15,000 during the same period due to the company being compelled to operate the deep wells for months.

ton C. H. were the second or third highest in Ohio, and Evans responded by saying it was due to liquidating the indebtedness due to the unpaid water bills.

In conclusion Evans stated that anytime council wants him to appear to answer questions he would be glad to come.

Riffe spoke of Chamber of Commerce committee recommendations for a traffic officer to check violators, and said observation had disclosed that either a regular traffic officer should be employed, or regular officers do the work.

Chairman Sites said the matter had been up before and thought something would be done about it soon.

Riffe mentioned the "master plan" for the city, regarding a huge trunk sewer through the city, eliminating part of Paint Creek, construction of a dam north of Oakland Avenue, and other matters, so that plenty of water could be obtained and sewer system improved.

Garrett Ramey, owner of the Try-Me Taxi Co., asked for an ordinance providing for parking places for his cabs, for which he pays the city $600 yearly. He was assured that if the present ordinance did not protect his parking places fully, one would be adopted that provided fines for violators.

Ramey also stated that the 40 and 8 branch of the American Legion had authorized purchase of eight six-foot signs to be presented to the city for placing near the schools.

He revealed that he plans to install a bus system in the city at a cost of at least $64,000, and would present the matter to council later.

Mention was made during the discussion that many bicycles parked in front of theaters formed a hazard.

An ordinance regulating sale of coal and coke in the city, and providing up to $50 fine for violations, was adopted as an emergency measure.

City Manager W. L. Stambaugh in his report said that preliminary investigation indicated a tremendous amount of the water entering the interceptor sewer was coming from the Cudahy Packing Co. plant, and that further check is being made.

Stambaugh said purchase of the Civilian Defense auxiliary fire equipment has not been consummated.

The question of granting the $25 per month increase in salary asked by the police and fire departments, was carried over until the next meeting when the city manager is to present financial data to see if paying the increase is possible.

Chairman Sites went on record as favoring the increase. Councilman Frank Snyder said he favored it if funds are available.

KILTIE QUARTET IS TO APPEAR AT HIGH SCHOOL

Bagpipers Star in Assembly Friday Afternoon; Some Seats Empty

Friday at 1 P. M., high school students here are going to be treated with something different in the way of assemblies.

The Kilties, a Caledonian quartet from Cincinnati, is the only traveling organization of its kind in America. Termed a veritable choir with volume and variety of repertoire, fine voices blend in great songs and lusty choruses.

The group is organized and directed by W. L. Nimmo, who also plays the Highland bagpipes (Scottish warpipes) and explains the instrument. The program consists of old Scottish ballads, classics, popular numbers, ensemble, solo and native impersonations.

All four of the quartet wear the traditional Scotch plaid kilts and Scotch bonnets. The tartans are the Royal Stewart, Cameron, MacLeod, Gordon and the famous Black Watch.

Nimmo's father is an Edinburgh Scot, his mother a Fraser from the Highlands and, with eight brothers and sisters, he came to the United States while a boy. He has been singing in quartets since he was 14.

Stephen C. Brown, the high school principal, said the back rows of the auditorium are not occupied by the student body and that from 70 to 75 people could be accommodated there if anyone wishes to hear the Kilties.

They have sung throughout the United States and Canada to many audiences numbering as high as 10,000 hearers. They have covered 240,000 miles by automobile during the past six years. That is believed to be a record, especially since it has been accomplished without accident, sickness or injury to any member of the organization.

NO STUDENT TICKETS TO BE SOLD AT GATE

They Must Be Purchased at Principal's Office

No student tickets for football games will be sold at the gates of Gardner Park from now on, Stephen C. Brown, the high school principal, said today.

All students who do not have activity tickets must purchase their football tickets at the principal's office on Friday before the game, Brown said.

At the same time he repeated the admission prices for the games—48 cents for adults and 14 cents for children under 12 years of age. Both admission prices include tax, Brown said.
